

Departure
Road 122

In the end
Here there is no right place
Where I can go
That reminds me home
I try to make my way under this cold
Through this scene of destruction

In this night
Day seems so far away
Everytime you'll need me
I'll run to you
To keep you safe

Leaving you
Has never been easy
Everytime you will call
I will come back
Just to bring you home

Never thought
It would be easy to leave
You here alone
Gettin far from home
Counting time, the return becomes closer
The value of a departure

In this night
Day seems so far away
Everytime you'll need me
I'll run to you
To keep you safe

Leaving you
Has never been easy
Everytime you will call
I will come back
Just to bring you home

After all
I cannot control the time
But I can control what to write on its pages
I will come..
I will come to bring you with me
I will come..
Because this is what I wrote on these pages

In this night
Day seems so far away
Everytime you'll need me
I'll run to you
To keep you safe

Leaving you
Has never been easy
Everytime you will call
I will come back
