

I'm In Charge

Road 122

And today
A shitty breakfast
So horrible
I feel like eating
A stinky shoe

My neighbor beating
On the ceiling
Put a leash on
That fucking dog

My usual is
Run like a fool
Avoiding zombies
Searching wifi

Get out of my way
I have no time
So try to stop me (and)
I'll throw you down

My life is degenerating
My mind is going to explode
But you have not yet realized that
You have to move, I'm in charge here

Standing on the bus
I look around
It's full of hipsters
With funny hats

Looking out windows
With their headphones
Just to feel intellectuals

Everyday I
Run like a fool
Avoiding assholes
Taking selfies

Get out of my way
I have no time
So try to both me (and)
I'll kick your ass

My life is degenerating
My mind is going to explode
But you have not yet realized that
You have to move, I'm in charge here

Everything runs faster than me
I cannot even put my shoes
But you have not yet realized that
You have to move, I'm in charge here

Even when I eat
It's full of jerks that
Take pictures of lunch
To share with their friends

Hey buddies look
How stunning I am
Even today
I eat at fast food

Three hours to choose
A fucking filter
To make a photo
Of a cheeseburger

I'm sure your fathers
Will be proud of you
Hey look at my boy!
He's all his mommy

My life is degenerating
My mind is going to explode
But you have not yet realized that
You have to move, I'm in charge here

Everything runs faster than me
I cannot even put my shoes
But you have not yet realized that
You have to move, I'm in charge here
