

Mommy I'm Talented
Road 122

Yeeeah, you will be famous bitch!
The judges will be fascinated by your great amazing voice
Without thinking you can't do nothing more than singing Beyoncé

Look for easy success, and easy money
You only need to demonstrate if you can hold the microphone
- Yeeeah baby, shake that "microphone" :-

Hey here comes
The special one
You think you're different
Now get yourself in line

You don't know
You're just a piece of meat for showbiz
And it looks great for you

Congratulations! You will go on TV!
The interviews where will you say that "music is your life"
The groupies who will follow you wherever you will go
Here the easy success, and easy money
Even if you've never written just one song in your own life

Hey here comes
The special one
You think you're different
Now get yourself in line

You don't know
You're just a piece of meat for showbiz
And it looks great for you

Tell us how
It feels to take
The elevator
While others use the stairs

What goes up
Must come back down
Remember the law
Get ready for the crash

They will working for you!
In a million dollar studio they will make your new hit song
While a group of losers like us have to do it all alone.
Broken amplifiers, sequencer updates, and hardware conflicts
Lucky my little friend you don't have worry about this stuff

Hey here comes
The special one
You think you're different
Now get yourself in line

You don't know
You're just a piece of meat for showbiz
And it looks great for you

Tell us how
It feels to take
The elevator

What goes up
Must come back down
