

Turn This Page
Road 122

This is the only door that I hoped to never close
For a reason I don't know
My entire life has been changed
By a hand that I couldn't stop

I'm sorry that I hurt you
I'm sorry to be gone
I'm realizing that I let you
Fall into the arms of someone else

I miss you every day and night
But I know we can't go back
In the end I wanted it
It's better that we turn this page
Simply take different ways
But at night I wonder
Will I see you again?

Maybe one day we'll meet again
Maybe I will know your children
We'll talk about our lives and then
We greet thinking how it would be
Our life if we stayed together
Who can tell?

You were the only one that have taught me how to love
I don't like to admit it
But in deep I hope that you will
Be happy with someone else

Someone who has time to love you
And that is more present than me

I miss you every day and night
But I know we can't go back
In the end I wanted it
It's better that we turn this page
Simply take different ways
But at night I wonder
Will I see you again?

I loved you like never before
It was hard to say goodbye
If only you had understood
It's better that we turn this page
Simply take different ways
But at night I wonder
Will I see you again?

Maybe one day we'll meet again
Maybe I will know your children
We'll talk about our lives and then
We greet thinking how it would be
Our life if we stayed together
Who can tell?

It scares me a little face life without you
It scares me like hell think that maybe you will forget me

I miss you every day and night
But I know we can't go back
In the end I wanted it
It's better that we turn this page
Simply take different ways
But at night I wonder
Will I see you again?

I loved you like never before
It was hard to say goodbye
If only you had understood
It's better that we turn this page
Simply take different ways
But at night I wonder
Will I see you again?
